9. ACCESS TO THE SITE(S)

9.1. Access for Supplier

The Client must provide free and safe access to all areas of the Site, reasonably required by Supplier, to enable Supplier to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

9.2. Supplier secure area

- (a) Upon request, the Client will set aside a secure part of the Site(s) (in a location proximate to where the Services are to be performed) for the Supplier to take deliveries of materials and to store Supplier's equipment.
- (b) Unless specified otherwise in the Quotation(s) and/or the Purchase order(s), the Client shall, at its own cost, provide continuous access to Supplier to all necessary telecommunications, electrical power, compressed air, light, water, waste disposal amenities, toilet and other services and facilities (as reasonably required by Supplier) to enable the Supplier to perform the Services.

9.3. Training at the Site(s)

The Client acknowledges and agrees that Supplier may use the Site(s) to provide its employees with additional training. Supplier will provide full supervision of any employees who attend the Site(s) for training purposes and will notify the Client prior to these persons attending the Site(s).

10. HEALTH, SAFETY AND ENVIRONMENT

10.1. Health, Safety & Environment Policies

Supplier and the Client must perform their obligations under this Agreement in accordance with all agreed, legislative and regulatory health, safety and environment requirements. To enable Supplier to do so, the Client must inform Supplier of any hazards and its safety requirements at the Site(s), provide relevant material data safety sheets, any Site(s) surveillance records and must induct Supplier's employees in all applicable safety procedures (at no cost to Supplier). If required by Supplier, the Client must make its employees available for training in Supplier safety requirements relevant to the performance of the Services.

10.2. Hierarchy of Responsibilities

On Sites where there is multiple provision of Services, the Client must establish and advise in writing a clear hierarchy of responsibilities related to health and safety management between all Parties.

10.3. Suspension

If at any time Supplier forms the reasonable opinion that it would be unsafe to continue performance of the Services, Supplier may notify the Client of the unsafe condition and Supplier may suspend performance of the Services until Supplier is of the opinion (in its absolute discretion) that it is safe to re-commence supply.

11. COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS

11.1. Compliance

- (a) The Parties must comply with all legislative and regulatory requirements that apply to the supply of the Services and must ensure that they have, and comply with, all necessary permits and licences that apply to the transportation, storage and use of the goods and performance of the Services.
- (b) Supplier is only required to comply with regulations, permit or licence requirements that are specific to the Site(s) if the Client provides Supplier with written notice of these prior to the Commencement Date. The Client is liable for any costs incurred by Supplier in obtaining a licence or permit required by regulations or laws that apply specifically to the Site(s).

11.2. Change to laws

- (a) If any of Supplier's costs for the supply of the Services increase as a result of:
 - (i) Supplier's compliance with the introduction of, or any change

(including a change in interpretation) in, any federal, state, local or other law, regulation, order or decree of any kind or as a result of its compliance with any change in the Client's rules, regulations and policies; or

- (ii) any increase to the prices and charges payable by Supplier to a supplier as a result of a supplier's compliance with the introduction of, or any change (including a change in interpretation) in any federal, state, local or other law, regulation, order or decree of any kind, then Supplier may identify this cost increase(s) for the Client and increase the prices and charges for the Services payable under this Agreement in the same proportion as the increase in Supplier's costs.

- (b) An increase in the prices and charges under clause 11.2. (a) will take effect immediately on and from the date on which Supplier provides the Client with a written notice specifying the new prices and charges.

12. INSURANCE

12.1. The Supplier shall maintain the following insurance policies in connection with the performance of the Services:

- (a) Workers compensation insurance as required by law;
- (b) Third party liability and property damage insurance as required by law; and
- (c) Motor vehicle insurance covering all vehicles owned or leased by the Supplier and used in the performance of the Services.

12.2. The Client shall maintain the following insurance policies in connection with the performance of the Services:

- (a) Workers compensation insurance as required by law;
- (b) Third party liability and property damage insurance as required by law; and 12.3. Motor vehicle insurance covering all vehicles owned or leased by the Client and used in the performance of the Services.

13. INDEMNITIES AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

13.1. Indemnity from Supplier

Supplier indemnifies the Client against any loss, expense, liability or proceeding resulting from:

- (a) damage to the property of a third party; or
- (b) the injury or death of any person authorised to be on the Site(s), only if, and to the extent that, the loss, expense, liability or proceeding is directly caused by Supplier's breach of this Agreement.

13.2. Supplier's Limitation of Liability

Notwithstanding any other term of this Agreement, Suppliers total liability shall in all cases be limited to the value of the Purchase Order, or to a maximum value of US Dollars 15,000.00 (fifteen thousand), whichever is lower.

13.3. Excluded losses

To the extent the law permits and notwithstanding any other term of this Agreement, each Party excludes all liability whatsoever to the other for indirect or consequential loss or damage of any kind, loss of business revenue, loss of profits, failure to realize expected profits or savings, overhead costs, loss of reputation and goodwill, loss of value in any intellectual property, damages for business interruption, damages or liquidated sums payable pursuant to other agreements or for lost opportunities (including opportunities to enter into or complete arrangements with third parties) and commercial or economic loss of any kind arising in contract, tort (including negligence) under any statute or otherwise arising out of or in any way connected with this Agreement.

13.4. Indemnity by the Client

The Client indemnifies Supplier against any loss, expense, liability or proceeding resulting from:

- (a) damage to the property of Supplier or a third party; or
- (b) the injury or death of any person authorised to be on the Site(s), only if, and to the extent that, the loss, expense, liability or proceeding is directly caused by the Client's negligence or breach of this Agreement.

14. EMPLOYEES

14.1. Employees of the other Party

Except where otherwise agreed in writing, each Party agrees that they must not, and must ensure that their employees and related companies do not, during the term of this Agreement and for a period of 3 months after the termination of this Agreement, directly or indirectly:

- (a) employ or engage any employee of the other Party involved in the performance of this Agreement; or
- (b) solicit, induce or encourage any employee of the other Party involved in the performance of this Agreement to leave the employment of the other Party.

14.2. Injunctive Relief

The Parties acknowledge that damages may not be a sufficient remedy for any breach of this clause 14 and agree that each Party is entitled to specific performance or injunctive relief (as appropriate) as a remedy for any such breach or threatened breach in addition to any other remedies available at law or equity.

15. EXTENSION OF TIME

15.1. An extension of time will be granted to the Supplier where a delay is caused by any of the following events;

- (a) any act, omission, default or breach by the Client, it's personnel or contractors;
- (b) an order to suspend the Services under clause 15 except where the suspension is caused by or required due to an act, omission, breach or default by the Supplier or its personnel;
- (c) a change in law under clause 11.2; or
- (d) a Force Majeure Event under clause 18.

15.2. The Supplier will, as soon as reasonably practicable, give the Client notice of all incidents, circumstances or events outlined at 15.1 or any other occurrence likely to affect the progress of the Services which might reasonably be expected to result in a delay to the Supplier achieving completion of the Services.

Where the Supplier has been granted an extension of time for a delay under this clause 15 and has necessarily incurred extra costs as a direct consequence of the delay, the Supplier is entitled to recover costs as set out in clause 16.3.

16. CANCELLATION AND SUSPENSION

16.1. The Client may cancel or omit any part of the Service by giving the Supplier no less than 14 days written notice.

16.2. If Client cancels, or omits any part of, the Services, the Client shall pay to the Supplier:

- (a) the cost reasonably incurred by the Supplier; and
- (b) 30% of the value of the Services cancelled or omitted.

The Supplier's calculation of the amount payable under (a) and (b) will be final and conclusive.

16.3. If the Client suspends the Services, the Client shall pay the Supplier all reasonable costs incurred during the period of suspension, and the Supplier may increase the prices and charges to take into account any increase in the Supplier's costs as a result of such suspension.

17. TERMINATION

17.1. Right to terminate

A Party has the right to terminate this Agreement by notice in writing to the other Party if:

- (a) the other Party is Insolvent;
- (b) the other Party commits any breach of this Agreement and:
 - (i) the breach is material and not capable of being remedied; or
 - (ii) the breach is capable of being remedied and the other Party fails to remedy the breach within 30 days of being notified in writing of the breach by the Party seeking to terminate.

17.2. Notice

A notice given under this clause 16 must specify the event or events in relation to which the notice is given.

17.3. Survival after termination

Clauses 13, 14, 20 and 21 survive the termination of this Agreement.

18. FORCE MAJEURE

18.1. Suspension of obligations

Despite any other provision of this Agreement, if a Party is unable to safely and lawfully perform or is delayed in performing an obligation under this Agreement (other than an obligation to pay money) due to a Force Majeure Event, or if a Force Majeure Event renders such performance more expensive:

- (a) that obligation is suspended but only to the extent and for so long as performance is affected by the Force Majeure Event and the time for performing that obligation is extended by the duration of the Force Majeure Event; and
- (b) the affected Party will not be responsible for any loss or expense suffered or incurred by any other Party as a result of, and to the extent that, the affected Party's performance of its obligations is affected because of the Force Majeure Event.

18.2. Minimising effects of Force Majeure

- (a) A Party affected by a Force Majeure Event must take all reasonable steps to avoid, remove or limit the effects of the Force Majeure Event on its performance of the suspended obligations as quickly as possible.
- (b) Clause 18.2. (a) does not require a Party to settle any strike or other labour difficulty on terms contrary to its wishes.

19. BUSINESS ETHICS

19.1. Compliance with Business Ethical Standards

Each party, its employees, agents, representatives and Subcontractors shall at all times maintain high ethical standards and avoid conflicts of interest in the conduct of its business. In conjunction with its performance of the work, each Party and its employees, officers, agents and representatives shall comply with, and cause its Subcontractors and their respective employees, officers, agents and representatives to comply with, all applicable laws, statutes, regulations and other requirements prohibiting bribery, corruption, kick-backs or similar unethical practices.

20. CONFIDENTIALITY AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

20.1. No disclosure of Confidential Information

During the term of this Agreement and for a period of five (5) years after its termination, Confidential Information received by one Party from the other may not be disclosed by the recipient to any other person except:

- (a) to the recipient's employees, professional advisers and agents solely for the purpose of the performance of this Agreement or to make or defend any claim under this Agreement;
- (b) with the consent of the discloser;
- (c) if required by law or the rules of a recognised stock exchange.

20.2. Information in the public domain

The provisions of clause 20.1 do not apply to information which:

- (a) the recipient can show by written evidence was known to it prior to being obtained from the discloser and was not subject to obligations of confidentiality to the discloser or a third party;
- (b) is or becomes public knowledge through no action of the recipient; or
- (c) is disclosed to the recipient by a third party with a legal right to do so.

20.3. Employee, agents and contractors

The Parties must inform their employees, agents and contractors of the provisions of clause 20.1 and must ensure that those persons comply with that clause to the same extent that the Parties are required to comply with it.

20.4. Intellectual Property

- (a) The Client acknowledges and agrees that Supplier is the sole and exclusive owner of the Intellectual Property in the Services and the rights attached to that Intellectual Property.

- (b) The Client agrees that it will not disclose any details of, or information relating to, the Intellectual Property at any time during or after the term of this Agreement.
- (c) The Client further agrees that nothing in this Agreement grants to the Client any right, title or interest in or to any of the Intellectual Property in the Services.
- (d) The Client undertakes that it will not claim (whether during the term of this Agreement or thereafter) to have acquired any right, title or interest to the Intellectual Property in the the Services by virtue of the rights granted to the Client by this Agreement.
- (e) The Client must ensure that its employees, agents and contractors comply with clauses 20. (a) to (d) to the same extent that the Client is required to comply with them.

21. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

21.1. Notification

Either Party may provide written notice to the other of any dispute arising in relation to this Agreement. This notice must contain particulars of the alleged dispute.

21.2. Negotiations between Representatives

Within 3 days of receiving a notification of dispute under clause 21.1, the Representatives of the Parties are to meet and use their reasonable endeavors to settle the dispute.

21.3. Negotiations between Senior Managers

If after a period of 3 days, the Representatives have been unable to resolve the dispute, the dispute will be referred to a senior manager of each Party who shall use their reasonable endeavors to settle the dispute.

21.4. Legal proceedings

If negotiations pursuant to clause 21.3 fail to resolve the dispute within 14 days of negotiations commencing, then each Party is free to commence legal proceedings to resolve the dispute.

22. NOTICES

22.1. Address

Any notice provided under this Agreement must be in writing and given by facsimile, email or delivered to the address of each Party specified in the Quotation (or such other address notified in writing to the other Party).

22.2. Delivery
